

Forest Sector Technical Working Group in Solomon Islands
Ministry of Forest and Research (MOFR) & Stake holders

---

Relationship between the Main Focal Points of Forest Sector in National Development Strategy and Stakeholder's Program

25th June 2018

Forest Sector Technical Working Group in Solomon Islands
Ministry of Forest and Research (MOFR) & Stakeholders

---

Main Focal Points of Forest Sector in National Development Strategy

1. Downstream Processing Programme
2. National Forestry Resources Development Programme
3. National Herbarium & Botanical Garden Fencing & Landscaping
4. National Herbarium Research Laboratory Programme
5. Native Forest Enrichment and Research
6. Identification & Establishment of REDD+ Pilot Sites
7. National Forest Legislations

Forest Sector Technical Working Group in Solomon Islands
Ministry of Forest and Research (MOFR) & Stakeholders

---

Information which was heard from each stakeholders in the first TWG, adapted to seven important programs as the main focal points of forest sector in National Development Strategy.

Participated stakeholders in the first TWG.

- PHAMA (Pacific Horticultural & Agricultural Marketing Access Program)
- SPREP (Secretariat of the Pacific Regional Environment Programme)
- Australia High Commission
- UNDP (United Nation Development Programme)
- GIZ
- FAO (Food and Agriculture Organization)

Forest Sector Technical Working Group in Solomon Islands Ministry of Forest and Research (MOFR) & Stakeholders

---

- New Zealand High Commission
- WWF (World Wildlife Foundation)
- KOICA
- JICA

Forest Sector Technical Working Group in Solomon Islands
Ministry of Forest and Research (MOFR) & Stakeholders

---

To clarify relationship between stakeholders and the Ministry of Forest and Research, complete a table “Relationship between the Main Focal Points of Forest Sector in National Development Strategy and Stakeholder’s Programme”, and update properly.

Forest Sector Technical Working Group in Solomon Islands
Ministry of Forest and Research (MOFR) & Stake holders

---

Thank you